 6. March junior yearling steers calved March 2020
 7. Early junior yearling steers calved January & February 2020
- Division and reserve division champions will compete for grand and reserve grand champion owned heifer. No division champions will be named in the bred-and-owned or the cow/calf categories. Class winners will compete for the grand and reserve grand champion in these categories.
 - No animal shown may be transferred after the show with a sale date prior to the show. Any infraction of this rule shall cause the exhibitor to become ineligible to exhibit animals in shows sponsored by the American Angus Association for one year.
 - All animals must be shown by the owner. If for any reason the owner cannot show their own animal, permission must be obtained from the show committee for another junior member to show the animal.
 - Premiums: 1st place in each class will receive $50.00. The remainder of the premium money will be awarded on a graduated basis among the other animals after the show has been complete.

Showmanship

Exhibitors in the showmanship contest must be entered in the show to participate. Three divisions (Junior, Intermediate, Senior) will be offered divided by age of the junior as of January 1, 2021. Divisions will be made after all entries have been received. Novice showmanship will be offered to any junior too young to participate in the show and can exhibit someone else's animal.

Selection of National Showmanship Contestants

Georgia's contestants for National Showmanship will be selected during the Southern National Junior Angus Show on Saturday, May 22, 2021. Any junior wishing to participate in this contest must sign up with the Southern National Committee by the end of check in (5:00 p.m.) on Friday, May 21, 2021. Contestants do not have to own the animal they exhibit for the contest but must have owned at least one registered Angus. The top two placings will represent Georgia at the 2021 National Showmanship Contest. The next two placings will serve as alternates.

EXHIBITION OF LIVESTOCK IN GEORGIA HEALTH RULES

No livestock will be allowed entry into the exhibition facility without the proper health records and required tests. A Georgia Department of Agriculture representative may be present to examine all livestock.

Intrastate Health Requirements

All animals being exhibited in any type of livestock show must be individually identified and accompanied by a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection. The Certificate of Veterinary Inspection must show proof of the requirements outlined in these regulations for the appropriate species. The Certificate of Veterinary Inspection must be issued within 30 days prior to exhibition with the following exceptions:

Brucellosis Requirements: Georgia cattle have no brucellosis test requirement for exhibition. However, the cattle must originate from herds that are not under quarantine for brucellosis. Steers may move unrestricted from brucellosis quarantined herds.

Tuberculosis Requirements: Georgia cattle have no tuberculosis test requirement for exhibition. However, the cattle must originate from herds that are not under quarantine for tuberculosis.

Interstate Movement Health Requirement

All livestock entering Georgia for exhibition must meet Georgia's interstate movement health requirements. Cattle originating from states designated by the USDA as Brucellosis Class Free for at least two (2) years may enter Georgia without a brucellosis test or prior permit.

Bovine Brucellosis: All cattle eighteen (18) months of age or older regardless of brucellosis vaccination status shipped into Georgia must test negative to an official brucellosis test within thirty (30) days prior to entry. The standard plate agglutination test is not acceptable. The State Veterinarian may exempt certain cattle from brucellosis test requirements when it is determined that such cattle do not pose a risk for introduction of brucellosis into Georgia. The following are exempt from a Brucellosis test prior to entering Georgia:(a) Steers and spayed heifers; (b) Cattle younger than eighteen (18) months of age; (c) Cattle consigned to a state or federally approved slaughter establishment; (d) Cattle from Certified Brucellosis Free Herds provided the date of the last herd test and the certified herd number are recorded on the Certificate of Veterinary Inspection. Cattle quarantined for brucellosis shall not be transported into or within Georgia unless transported directly to a state or federally approved slaughter establishment.
